

An aerial photograph of Komodo Island, Indonesia. The image shows a rugged, rocky coastline with sparse green vegetation. A narrow strip of white sand beach runs along the shore, where several small, dark-roofed huts are visible. The water is a deep, clear blue, revealing the seabed. Two large white ferries with multiple decks are in the water, one in the foreground and one further back. A small motorboat is also visible near the beach. The text 'Komodo Island' is overlaid in a large, white, cursive font, with 'BOAT CHARTER' and '2026' in a smaller, white, sans-serif font below it.
